On February 23, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an article appeared in a recent edition of either "Haaretz" or "Yedioth Ahronot", both daily evening newspapers published in Israel, concerning the release from prison in Spain of Zvi Aldouby. Further, according to this source, the article stated that Aldouby, when released from prison, had his attorney present in an effort to bar the press from interviewing Aldouby.

This article continued, according to this source, that Aldouby, when released from prison, expected to travel to Paris, France, then to Germany, and eventually to the United States.
